Low Priced Cash Store!

The place to buy clean goods of the latest styles—the most desirable things in every line that the markets of the United States afford.

We are now fully equipped for the fall and winter trade, with a larger stock of General Merchandise than we ever showed before, at prices lower than our credit store neighbors can afford to offer. Our competitors may meet some of our prices, but, all around, we will be found away below them.

A fine little boy in the house of Mr. P. H. Allison.

Notice the advertisement of Stevenson & Peckham, Topeka.

Maj. E. L. Norton and wife have returned from their prolonged visit east, much delighted with the trip.

A fine cavalcade of equestrians and equestriennes rode through town last Tuesday morning. A sensible variety of exercise and enjoyment combined.

Mr. W. W. Sherrill, of Leola, N. C., is visiting his aunt Mrs. M. A. McCall. He is looking for a location and will remain here during the winter.

Rev. J. Boynton, once pastor of the M. E. church here and representative from this county in the Legislature, died on the 23d of September at Stanton, Mich., where he was stationed.

The hideous chestnut is a disgrace to our civilization. If the young gentlemen who so often engage in it would "time their harps" on some other key, they would accomplish much more good for themselves and the world at large.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. K. Bagley have returned from Massachusetts, after a three months' visit. They will remain here about two weeks and then go to Denver. Mr. Bagley sold out his grocery business, before his visit east, but will re-engage in business at Denver.

Mr. Paul A. Huff, of Richmond, Mo., was married to Miss Lizzie E. Senter, of this city, last Monday night. The ceremony occurred at the residence of Rev. A. N. See and was performed by Rev. A. J. Kissell. We extend our congratulations to this estimable young couple.

Mr. Frank Wilkerson and family returned from the west yesterday. Mr. Wilkerson accepts the important position of Washington correspondent of the New York Sun, and will start for the Capital in about two weeks. Mrs. Wilkerson and the boys will remain in Salina for the present.

The encampment of the Knight Templars promises to be a very interesting gathering. The commanderies of McPherson and Clay Center have agreed to be present. The well-known Dispatch Band of Clay Center will be present. The encampment will last during Oct. 23d, 24th and 25th.

The "Impromptus" don't seem to have much use for Ed. Wittman, J. W. Frost and Louis Tressin—as much independent candidates as those of the ticket that has been hoisted by the "Impromptus." Of course these men could not have belonged to the Impromptu ring.

The following gentlemen from Saline county are attending the Soldiers' Reunion at Leavenworth: H. D. Baker, H. S. Cunningham, C. E. Faulkner, E. Washburne, Anson Miller, Philip Wells, A. B. Chapman, Jonathan Tinkler, J. Feilerhen, L. M. Tuttle, G. M. Eastman, C. Swift.

Mr. Willis Bristol moved his barber shop to the new location (building next south of the city building) last evening. The new quarters have been nicely adorned with paint, carpet, new mirrors and other attractions. It makes a light, clean, airy resort for those who patronize a barber. The building now belongs to Mr. Bristol.

The Republican primary elections last Saturday resulted in the choice of delegates by a large majority favorable to the nomination of Mr. C. S. Radcliff for Sheriff. It would appear from the returns that the contest between Messrs. C. S. Martin and L. F. Parsons for Register of Deeds would be very close.

The news of the various attachments levied upon the road-bed and material of the Topeka, Salina & Western has caused some despondency in this quarter among those who have been waiting patiently and playfully for the road. Even though the clouds hang low and dark in the Council Grove and Topeka direction, we have faith in the road and believe firmly that it will be built. These attachments will soon be satisfied and the road pushed on.

In a trip to Gypsum Creek the other day, we were surprised to see the remarkable growth the wheat had made. A most lovely view from one of the high "knobs" of Gypsum was presented. Great patches of green, the winding creek resting in the haze of an Indian summer, the beautifully undulating fields, the great white hogues and the large red barns. Resting for dinner at the hospitable home of Mr. Gillum, we drove to the store of Bates & Tinkler, where we stopped for an hour or so. Mr. Bates pointed out the route of the new railroad and the beautiful site of a town in contemplation—to be called Gypsum City. Mr. Bates said that within a few weeks after the railroad is built, there will be in the neighborhood of 100 buildings put up. Bates & Tinkler have a fine trade at their snug little store, and are happy and contented. Off towards the creek we noticed a splendid large barn being constructed by John Kingman.

The Salina Independent last week placed at the head of its columns the following ticket, calling it the "Independent County Ticket":

For Sheriff, Olof Forsee; county clerk, D. G. Denton; county treasurer, J. B. Hamilton; register of deeds, George F. Supple; surveyor, O. P. Hamilton; coroner, J. B. Groger; county commissioner, 3d district, Daniel Hamberger.

Immediately following the ticket were these remarks:

The ticket we place at the head of these columns we believe will be successful. It is a large majority of the voters of the county. In an impromptu meeting of city and country gentlemen held in this city two weeks ago to-day the ticket was formed and approved. Here and the proper means have been taken to acquaint leading independent men from all parts of the county with what had been done, for the purpose of securing their approval or disapproval of that action. The expression thus gained is satisfactory in the fullest degree.

In the next column the Independent proceeds to decimate against a certain ring which has given that paper so much trouble of late. There is much smiling over the consistency of the Independent's articles. In one column the Independent speaks of the "Impromptus" getting up a ticket, and then delivers itself of a pronouncement against some other ring. People do not doubt, here just as much regard for one ring as another, and we don't see where the "Impromptus" ring will have any advantage over any other ring. We are in favor of downing all rings. That's our position.

The STRONG LUMBER COMPANY will commence business on or about October 1st, with a new and complete stock of lumber, shingles, lath, sash, doors, blinds, etc., etc. Office and yard on Iron Avenue, west of the Metropolitan Hotel. In connection with our red and white cedar posts we will also offer for sale 20 tons four-barbed fence wire at $6.25 per 100 pounds.

CHARLES C. CULP, Manager.

SALINA, KANS., Sept. 19, 1883.

New Cambria Crumbs. The much needed rain came at last and brightened not only the face of the earth, but the faces of our farmers—everybody in general.

This place is fast becoming a stock market. W. H. Boyd shipped three car loads of fat hogs to Kansas City the first of the week.

Mrs. Joseph Carman who was so dangerously ill for a few days past is now convalescing.

John S. Dodds and family have moved to Salina, and the neat little cottage by the mill is now vacant.

As the season advances there seems to be a "boom" in the matrimonial market.

Charles H. Rose has returned from Silverton, Colorado, where he spent the summer looking after his mining interests. His many friends here are pleased to welcome him home.

John Cline lost two good horses last week from a disease that seems to be going the rounds among the horses.

S. P. Donnyer lost a fine graded bull out of his herd of fat cattle last week.

The venerable old father of D. S. Kolar, besides several other relatives are visiting here from Ohio.

Mr. David Arnold and Miss Sallie McFadden embarked on the matrimonial ship for a voyage through life together. We trust that their trip across life's stream may be one of peace and joy, and offer our heartiest congratulations.

Beautiful weather. Tried to rain last Monday. Wheat fields are looking green.

S. S. Shaffer has left Asmaria and gone east.

C. W. Lindquist was quite sick last Sunday. To-day he is able to be at work again.

Tom Olson is hauling sand and stone and it will not be long before the mason will be at the stone wall.

Our school is progressing nicely under the supervision of Stail, who, we think, will lead the little ones up the hill of science successfully.

At last we have got what we have long been looking for, and that is a meat market. John Charlson keeps a fresh supply of beef every day.

Our base ball club went to Lindborg last Saturday, and scouted the Lindborg "ducks" to the tune of 25 to 5. There is no club in Central Kansas that is able to "touch our boys with a ten-foot pole."

A little girl of Mr. Ahari's, of Liberty township, fell off a horse today, and broke her forearm; both the ulna and radius were broken. Mr. Willis brought the little girl to Asmaria, and Dr. Knox adjusted the fracture.

We have failed to learn who the delegates are from township to the Republican County Convention. If there was a primary election, we would so secretly that none of us have found it out.

Mr. Stephen Post, of Gypsum creek, was in our town last Tuesday. When we saw him he was in company with two gentlemen (strangers) whom we took to be politicians. They had not the "sand" to introduce themselves to N. O. Monk.

Phobias Items. A very light frost, the first of the season, last Saturday morning.

Lots of rain, wheat all in and coming up just splendid; hay all up.

Threshing all done except here and there a lonely stack waiting for the weather to settle.

Miss Willott, a cousin of E. Dresser, is out on a visit from Ill.

D. Woodbury has bought a lot in Solomon, and will move there soon.

R. Thwing is getting lumber on the ground for a new barn.

S. H. Waddle has re-plastered his house.

The Geo. White place has changed hands again—Frank Hart is the owner now.

Miss Nettie Woodbury is the "school marm" in District No. 56, Dickinson county.

J. M. Burt in Eureka has a 75 barrel cistern put in and is putting up a fine residence 18x24, one and a half stories.

The next regular meeting of Bridge Post, 131, G. A. R., will be the evening of Oct. 15, at 6:30 sharp. Rally once again.

The annual meeting of the W. C. T. U., was held at the residence of Mrs. Set, Oct. 24. The usual number being in attendance, officers were chosen for the ensuing year. Mrs. Holl, President; Mrs. Moulton, Secretary; Mrs. Hole, Treasurer. Vice-Presidents were appointed to represent each church in the city: Mrs. Ella Lester, Lutheran; Mrs. C. H. Martin, Christian; Mrs. T. H. Davis, Methodist; Mrs. G. Radcliff, Presbyterian; Mrs. C. Radcliff, Baptist; Mrs. R. T. Watson, Episcopal.

MRS. MOULTON, Sec'y.

SALINA, KANS., Oct. 4, 1883.

This is to certify that I have received from the Washington Insurance Co., of Boston, per hands of Henne & Kraft, their agents of Salina Co., the sum of $300 in full payment and to my entire satisfaction, of loss which occurred by fire on my dwelling house. I can recommend the company as prompt, honest and safe.

MRS. SHANNAH WIKIN.

"Battle of the Books." The "Literary Revolution" which caused such a sensation a few years ago, and which was supposed to have been thoroughly overthrown and done for, seems to be "abuzz" again, more fierce and flourishing than ever. Its "100-page catalogue, free," and "books sent to any one in the land for receipt and examination," are now being advertised in thousands of papers, and it opens one's eyes to see the books offered—this time thoroughly beautiful typography and the best of paper, presswork and binding, instead of small type and cheap work, as formerly. And one must acknowledge that they are indeed "the lowest prices ever known." We quote a few samples, the books being always unshipped, and in large type:

Tennyson's Enoch Arden, 2 cents. The Cotter's Saturday Night, 2 cents. Caesar's Commentaries, Cicero's Orations, and numerous other "Ancient Classics for English Readers," reduced from $1 to as low as 15 cents each.

Bacon's Essays, 15 cents to 30 cents. Dore's famous Bible Gallery, $2. Irving's Sketch Book, 25 cents to 50 cents.

Irving's Works, in 6 large and most beautiful volumes, $4. Ancient Egypt under the Pharaohs, reduced from $15 to $1.25.

Soot's Waverley Novels, reduced from $20 to $7.50. George Eliot's Works reduced from $12 to $7.50.

And a whole host of the great poets of the world, ranging from 40 to 50 cents upwards; also plenty of other books equally interesting and astonishing to the old-time book buyers. The books are sold only to buyers direct, and not through booksellers. Those who would be inclined to be confronted with the "privilege of examination before payment," and the witness of one's own neighbors on every hand who have already received their books. It is certainly worth a postal card to get the "catalogue free." For that, address John B. Alden, Publisher, 18 Vesey St., New York.

News Not First Class Goods. In Watonga, Jewelry and Silverware one should have the best or none. Messrs. Shurley & Co., Chicago, are making a specialty of fine goods, and if you need anything in Watches in dust and water proof cases, Solid Silver or Triple Plated Ware, Solid Gold or Rolled Gold Jewelry, send to Shurley & Co., they will send a single article at the dozen price. They are vouches for and endorsed by the United States Express Co., American Express Co., Southern Express Co., F. W. Palmer, Postmaster of Chicago, Geo. A. C. Smith, Ex-State Treasurer, and many others. Goods sent on approval, with privilege of examination, enabling you to do your purchasing at home. Re-member, Shurley & Co., 77 State Street, Chicago, Ill. Send for their new and beautifully illustrated catalogue.

BRIDGE, KANSAS, Oct. 8, 1883. EDITOR JOURNAL.—The next social of the M. E. church will be held at Mr. S. S. Godfrey's on Thursday, Oct. 18. Refreshments will be served at an early hour and a general good time will be the order of the evening. Everyone is expected to come and bring all their friends.

Mrs. M. A. McDowell.

Wendling's celebrated lecture entitled "Satan," is drawing tremendous crowds. He will be in Salina Oct. 22.

A large assortment of hair goods in all the latest styles, at Mrs. Murphy's.

FOR SALE—500 feeding wethers, 400 2-year old ewes, 3 miles west of Bennington. T. LORR, Sup't.

New fall millinery at A. T. & M. H. ler's.

To the Public.

We believe the readers of papers have become tired of Big Windy advertisements and want plain facts. Therefore we will simply say that we have received the larger part of our fall purchase, consisting of almost everything kept in a general stock of Merchandise. We expect to sell our goods as cheap as any of our neighbors, and in some specialties will sell cheaper.

Ladies' Wraps and gentlemen's fine overcoats are among our specialties. Remember that we are the only house in the city where you can find a complete line of

Fall and Winter styles of the celebrated JAMESTOWN DRESS

GOODS.

In connection with Dress Goods

we would say, positively, that we offer the best $1.00 Cashmere in Saline County.

Come and see us. Compare our goods and prices with those of our neighbors and we will be satisfied with the result.
